

BIOGRAPHY

DR. DWIGHT WILLIAMS

Dr. Dwight E. Williams is Board Certified in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery. He received his Bachelor's Degree from Boston University and attended Dental School at Columbia University College of Dental Medicine where he received his DDS and a Masters Degree in Public Health (MPH). He completed his training in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery at Harlem Hospital Center in New York City.

For over ten years, he served as Assistant Clinical Professor at Columbia University College of Dental Medicine and was the Associate Program Director for the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Program at Harlem Hospital from 1999-2010.

Dr. Williams is currently in Private practice in the North Bronx and is the Associate Program Director for Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Residency Program at Woodhull Medical Center in Brooklyn, New York. At Woodhull Hospital he trains oral surgery residents in the full scope of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery including major trauma and reconstruction cases. Additionally, he maintains a part time private practice in Montego Bay, Jamaica and is the Consultant Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon at Andrews Memorial Hospital and the Jamaica Defense Force in Kingston, Jamaica.

Dr. Williams is graduate of Jamaica College (Class of 1980) where he excelled academically and represented the school in Cricket and Table Tennis. A former President of the Jamaica College Old Boys Association of New York, he is actively engaged with several non-profit organizations in the Diaspora, inclusive of his annual trip to Jamaica where he volunteers with different missionary medical/dental organizations.

He is married to renowned Caribbean Fashion designer Morvia Williams and they are the proud parents of three boys, Brandon, Preston and Austin.