

BIOGRAPHY

DR. PAUL LINDO

Dr. Paul Washington Lindo was born in Kingston, Jamaica and grew up in the Waterhouse area of Western St. Andrew. He received his early education at St. Aloysius Boys School. Dr. Lindo later attended Jamaica College where he graduated in 1978.

He received his bachelor's degree from Queens College, City University of New York and his Doctor of Dental Surgery from Columbia University. Dr. Lindo completed his internship and residency at GPR Peninsula Hospital and the Columbia University Dental School, Division of Orthodontics respectively.

Dr. Lindo is the proprietor of ACE Orthodontics, LLC, located in the suburbs of Atlanta, where he conducts his private practice. He also serves as the Orthodontic Consultant with the Jamaica Defence Force. Dr. Lindo is a member of Omicron Kappa Upsilon National Dental Honor Society (OKU), Columbia University College of Dental Medicine.

A pioneer and sustaining member of the Jamaica College Old Boys Association of New York, Dr. Lindo is passionate about giving back to the community, particularly taking care of the poor and disenfranchised. For many years he has participated in dental mission trips to Jamaica to serve those in need through the Organization for International Development, Inc. (OID). Dr. Lindo is also a perennial volunteer with the Atlanta Montego Bay Sister Cities organization, which provides free health programs for the under-served residents of Montego Bay.

Dr. Lindo is married to Karan and they are the proud parents of son, Paul II and daughter Mykaela.